TURKEY, 16 CENTS

THANKSGIVING EDIBLES CHEAP,
LOCAL DEALERS SAY.

ARE FILLING LARDERS

Trade in Groceries, Fruits and Poultry
Lives as Fall Holiday Approaches
—Plenty for All.

With Thanksgiving but one day in the advance, commercially, the demand of Maryville housewives for extra supplies of groceries, poultry, fruits, vegetables and nuts has increased. The various stands of the city which handle edibles for the Thanksgiving table are doing a rushing business today. Prices are satisfactory to most housewives, considering the quotations of the city markets, and the offering and supply are good, too, the dealers proclaim.

Physicians and druggists of the city also are making active preparations for doing a "land office" business the day following Thanksgiving, in curing ailments such as are common succeeding big "feeds."

According to poultry dealers here there is a plentiful supply of all varieties of poultry; in fact, such a supply in instances that the markets have become glutted, and as a result the dispensers of Thanksgiving dinners this year will feel less inclined to bemoan the approach of that holiday.

Turkeys are Plentiful.

Turkeys are coming in from the farms quite lively this week, and ducks, geese and nice fat chickens are seen in the shops in profusion awaiting the Thanksgiving eve. Nodaway county is famed for its production of befatted bipeds, and this year the farmers have not lessened its claim to that title.

"But the great turkey country in this part of Missouri," said Charles Jensen, poultry dealer and dispenser this morning, "is along the Grand river in Harrison and Daviess counties, where hundreds of the Thanksgiving birds are marketed each fall and winter in Chicago and eastern cities."

The local grocers also come across with the information that fruits and vegetables are of better grade and are selling just as cheap or cheaper than they were last year. Grape fruit, especially, it is said, is cheaper and of better quality than in the past.

The following prices on Thanksgiving supplies were generally quoted by grocers and poultry dealers of Maryville today.

What the Prices Are.

CLOSE SHOP, THANKSGIVING

Home Rules Thursday While Business Houses and Offices Observe Day.

Maryville will close up shop Thursday that the employer and employee may both enjoy Thanksgiving Day in their own dear way. From all indications it will be a quiet day in the business section, while the scenes of activity and pleasure will generally center around the kitchen and dining and sitting rooms of the homes. Of course there will be hunting galore, motoring special church services, banquets and general Thanksgiving festivities, but the home will be the principal satellite to all.

Indications now are for a fair and moderately fall day for Thanksgiving. This being true, the roads in the vicinity of Maryville give promise of being well filled at least on the afternoon of Thursday with every species of automobile from the Ford on up to the reigning engines of the highway. The demand for hunting licenses also has increased the last few days, according to County Clerk George Demott, which indicates the slaughter of many innocent rabbits, squirrels and probably ducks. But the little quail will be safe from the hunters for another week, if state game laws are observed.

Some of the churches and church auxiliaries also are planning extra services and affairs on that day or the night preceding, while the Elks will give its annual ball tomorrow night. Walking parties also give promise of being quite stylish Thursday among the young folk, especially those that can not muster an automobile.

Nearly all of the business houses, the banks, the court house, city offices and the postoffice will be closed during the day, Thanksgiving. At the postoffice, one city delivery will be made in the morning and the general delivery window will be open only from 11 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.

The Democrat-Forum will not issue a paper that day so the employees may observe the holiday. The dry goods stores will close all day, the grocery stores at 11 a. m., the barber shops at noon and nearly all of the other stores at the same time.

PROF. CAMERON IS IMPROVED.

Normal Teacher Unable to Move as Result of Auto Accident, However.

Prof. J. E. Cameron of the Normal faculty, who was pinned beneath his overturned car near the Palestine church, in the southwest part of Nodaway county, yesterday morning, is slightly improved, but still unable to move, on account of the numerous bruises and lacerations over his body. His chest and back are particularly bruised by the impact of the side of the car, which lay across his breast. He is not believed to be injured internally.

Because of the injuries to Prof. Cameron, another instructor will be delegated to visit Holt county this week, in the interest of the Normal. Prof. Cameron was on his way to that county on the annual visitation by the state school.

Prof. Cameron cannot yet explain how the automobile accident occurred. The car turned on a straight, level stretch of road. He says the steering gear was in good condition, yet the car tracks show that the car was made to swerve from one side of the road to the other within a short distance, as though the car was not under control, according to John Gex, who first found Prof. Cameron.

ATTENDS FUNERAL SERVICES.

Maryville Relatives Go to Rosendale to Attend Tilsen Rites.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Tilsen, J. L. Tilsen, Mrs. Robert Yeaman and Mrs. Ella Shilps left this morning for Rosendale to attend the funeral services of Harvey Tilsen, the 6-year-old son of Lester Tilsen, who died Sunday at Pickering.

The funeral services were held at 10 o'clock this morning and the body interred in the Bennett Lane cemetery, southwest of Rosendale.

Returns to Greenfield.

Miss Pearl Sawyers of Greenfield, Ia., who has been visiting her cousins, Mrs. W. J. Snider, Mrs. Lawrence Gault and Miss Elizabeth Sawyers, left yesterday for her home.

ELKS FEAST KIDS

B. P. O. E. WILL GIVE THIRD ANNUAL THANKSGIVING FEED.

EXPECT TO DINE SIXTY

Serve Roast Chicken, Cranberry Sauce, Ice Cream and Usual Holiday Delicacies—Music, Too.

Sixty or more boys and girls of Maryville, ranging in ages up to and including fifteen years, will be dined by the local lodge of Elks in the Elks club rooms, at noon Thanksgiving day, as has been the custom for the two preceding years. Arrangements already have been begun by Dr. H. L. Stinson and others interested in the movement, for serving the usual Thanksgiving edibles to the three score or more of kids that flock to the fraternal brethren's annual free feed.

The festive board, which will fill the dining room in the basement of the Elks club, will be heaped with steaming hot roast chicken and dressing, cranberry sauce, celery, cakes, pies, sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes. To top it all off will be ice cream, which each year the Elks' guests rave so much about. Then preceding and following the feast will come music by phonograph and also probably by a string orchestra, if arrangements for one can be made.

The first year that the Elks established this custom of serving a Thanksgiving dinner to boys and girls was in 1912. About forty-five took advantage of the Elks' hospitality that time, while last year there were about sixty present. As many or more than last year are expected to be the Elks' guests Thursday.

They begin coming to the club rooms as early as 10:30 and 11 o'clock Thanksgiving morning, so eagerly do they anticipate the luxuries and delicious edibles that await them within the fraternal home.

Several women of the city also offer their services each year, to help provide for the kiddies, and probably will do so again this year, although the work so far is directly in the hands of several of the Elks.

THANKSGIVING AT HARMONY.

All-Day Meeting—Sermon Will Be Preached by Rev. Mr. Harkness.

Thanksgiving is to be observed with special services at Harmony church, beginning at 10:45 Thursday morning.

The sermon will be preached by the Rev. S. D. Harkness, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and a musical program will be given by the Harmony choir.

At noon a basket dinner will be served in the church, and the afternoon will be devoted to recreation and a program of literary and athletic events has been arranged.

The Rev. C. R. Green, pastor of Harmony church, will leave Friday evening for Warrensburg to attend a special meeting.

Here from Ohio.

Mrs. Lucinda Workman of Centerville, O., arrived in Maryville yesterday to visit at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Snider, Mrs. T. M. C. Neff, Mrs. Lawrence Gault and other relatives. After spending a time here Mrs. Workman will go to Pittsburg, Pa., to spend several months.

NO SCHOOL THANKSGIVING

City Institutions Will Have Four Days Vacation—Friday Not Holiday.

The public grade and high schools of Maryville will close tomorrow afternoon, not to reopen until next Monday morning, in observance of Thanksgiving day. The Normal school has been closed since last Friday to remain that way until Monday, while some of the rural schools likewise will observe a four days holiday. A few rural teachers, however, will have school as usual Friday, so that they will not have to "make up" the day later in the term on some Saturday.

It has become a general impression over the county, according to County School Superintendent W. M. Oakerson, that the teachers may close the schools both Thursday and Friday and yet get paid for the entire week. Such is not the case, according to the present state laws, Mr. Oakerson said. If no school is held Friday the teacher is either "docked" in pay or she will have to make up the day later. Neither is the teacher paid for Thanksgiving if the school is not in session Friday. So that in reality, though Thursday itself is a holiday, the teacher "skipping" school Friday would have to make up for both days.

BURR IS HONORED MAN.

Maryville Booster Gets Into Philanthropic Enterprise with Song at Fort Worth.

George Luther Burr, writer, songwriter and general town booster, formerly of Maryville or "Mary Villmo," as he is wont, in songs to call it, has entered into quite a fame strung path in Fort Worth, Texas, his present abode, by his ability along chosen lines. The Fort Worth Star-Telegram of Sunday reproduces the words and music of George's Goodfellow song, which was written for the Christmas "cheer" fund campaign now on there.

Burr also is now being lionized over the country by the writing of a song called "Shepherd of the Hills," descriptive of Ozark life and scenes, as the book of that title. It now is being placed on sale in music shops.

HAS VISITED 93 SCHOOLS.

Superintendent Oakerson Continues Visitation of 93 Rural Educational Institutions.

W. M. Oakerson, county school superintendent, left this morning for points in the north part of the county to make an annual inspection of rural schools. Prof. Oakerson, so far this school term, has visited ninety-three of the 178 schools of the county outside of Maryville, and expects to have inspected the remaining eighty-five prior to the Christmas holiday, if the weather remains favorable.

In most instances, Mr. Oakerson reports the schools in good condition. The attendance has been unusually good this fall, on account of the favorable weather and the better than usual progress in the studies is reported in a majority of schools that have been visited during the last two months.

STATE TO PREVENT TYPHOID.

University Supplies 1,000 Doses of "Anti" Serum in Two Weeks.

Over 1,000 treatments of anti-typhoid serum have been supplied by the department of preventive medicine of the University of Missouri in the last few weeks. The department is overloaded with orders for the serum to prevent the dreaded disease. The university has agreed to supply the treatment and directions free of charge, but applications must come through practicing physicians.

"This treatment," says Dr. M. P. Ravenel, professor of preventive medicine, "may be taken by children as well as adults. It is not dangerous. Its use is compulsory in the U. S. army. Doctors have a record of 150-646 treatments with only three cases of typhoid following and no deaths resulting."

"Carelessness in controlling the water supply is the most frequent cause of the disease," says Dr. Ravenel. "Flies are next in spreading infection. The disease must always come from some existing case. Drainage and surface water carries the germs."

"The open closet is a menace to the life of a community, and must go," declares Dr. Ravenel. The engineering experiment station of the university is preparing plans for sanitary disposal of sewage for the farm and small community where no sewers have been laid.

Leaves for St. Joseph.

Mrs. Henry Wright left yesterday for St. Joseph to visit her mother, Mrs. E. P. Houser of Grant City, who is ill at Ensworth hospital. Mrs. Wright will accompany her mother to her home the last of the week.

Will Visit at Neosho.

Mrs. M. E. Long, who has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. S. D. Harkness, and family, left this morning for Neosho, Mo., to spend several weeks.

BOOST NEW ROAD

TARKIO ENTHUSIASTS HERE TODAY AS ESCORTS.

TO DINE HIGHWAY MEN

State Highway Leader and Interocean Officials Arrive Here Tonight—Leave Local Officers in Cold.

Nine Tarkio business men and good roads boosters arrived in Maryville at nearly noon today en route to Stanberry, where they will meet F. W. Bufum of Louisiana, state highway commissioner; C. F. Adams of Chillicothe, president of the new Interocean highway, and party, and escort them this evening through here and on to Tarkio, where they will be dined tonight. The highway officials apparently have coldly passed up Nodaway county, notwithstanding the fact that E. H. Bainum of this city is vice president and Edward Curfman is a committeeman of the Interocean Highway association.

Why Nodaway county and Maryville have been so unjustly ignored by the highway officials is beyond the comprehension of Mr. Bainum, he said this afternoon. No notice whatever was given them of the proposed inspection trip through here today, and no effort made, seemingly, to consult them in the matter.

For this reason no attention will be paid by the local road boosters to the inspection trip here today. None of the local workers nor highway officials will meet the tourists nor extend to them courtesies such as Maryville is wont always to do, and which would have been planned if some consideration would have been shown the local officials.

The Tarkio party which stopped over at noon today here consisted of F. S. Travis, secretary of the Tarkio Commercial club; W. F. Rankin, vice president, and H. A. Smith, J. D. Rankin, M. H. Hall, William H. Kendall, Wells Andrews, Al Clark and James True. Mr. Travis, beside being commercial club secretary, also is county highway commissioner of Atchison county, while Mr. True is a member of the county commission.

They expect to arrive here with the Interocean highway inspectors about 6:30 tonight, then escort them direct to Tarkio, where an oyster supper awaits them. Plates will be laid for 400. Both Mr. Buffum and Mr. Adams are on the speaking list following the supper.

The Interocean Highway association was formed a year ago at a meeting in Chillicothe. At that time Mr. Bainum was chosen vice president and Mr. Curfman was chosen on a committee. They alone represented Nodaway county. The new route enters Nodaway county at the old Sweet Home store, southeast of Ravenwood, passes through Ravenwood, then comes direct into Maryville. From here it extends westward through Burlington Junction, thence almost due west to the Western county line and on to Tarkio. The route which now extends from St. Louis to Omaha will eventually become an ocean to ocean highway, it is planned.

BUY FLOUR FOR BELGAINS

Local Relief Campaigners Order Supply at Hopkins Today.

A number of workers in the local campaign for a Belgian relief fund motored to Hopkins this morning to place an order for a car load of Nodaway county flour to be shipped to the hungry Flanders people. The party included Fred Hull, president, and W. R. Jackson, secretary of the Commercial club; Paul Sisson, chairman of the relief committee; Charles C. Hellmers, Edward Curfman and Frank P. Reuillard.

The flour, which will constitute a shipment of approximately 30,000 pounds, will be ground as nearly as possible from strictly home grown wheat, in the only mill in Nodaway county, which is operated by the Wolters Mercantile company. It will cost the relief committee about $700, of which $669.98 had been raised yesterday afternoon. This was increased slightly today and the $100 mark probably will be made this week.

It is contributed by individuals, churches and Sunday schools. The flour will be ready to ship within a week, it is said. It will be hauled free by the railroads to an eastern ocean point and there loaded aboard a ship and sent to Belgium.

TEACH FARM BOYS

TWO HUNDRED TAKE UNIVERSITY
YEAR'S SHORT COURSE.

ALSO I PREPARE WOMEN

Short Course Co-Eds Learn How to Cook and Sew Expect 100 More
the Second Term.

How to set up the frame of a building, how to mix concrete, how to judge live stock and corn, how to make good butter, how to treat stock diseases, and the "how to" of a hundred other farm jobs is taking the time of the short course students in the College of Agriculture of the University of Missouri. Everything they are taking is as interesting as important. That the courses are valued by the men taking them is shown by the fact that of the 139 students enrolled in the first term, sixty-three have been there before.

There is also a short course for women. Around a big U-shaped table one may see them studying the proper methods of food preparation. On individual stoves they experiment in the cooking of foods. In other classes they learn how to plan and serve meals. There are classes in canning and preserving, dressmaking, butter making and poultry raising.

The most interesting course, some of the men say, is shop work. Welding and tempering is taught in making ordinary hay hooks, links, punches and cold chisels. In the woodwork department the students are well along in framing a building.

In the soils department the students are experimenting with fertilizer on soil that has been taken from their own counties. Here are plants growing in every kind of Missouri soil, under every condition, with every practical kind of fertilizer. The home mixing of fertilizer is taught so that a saving of 15 to 20 per cent can be made on the fertilizer bill.

In the large new judging pavilion the students are studying and judging the best prize stock in the state. Short course men have done so well in the past that first place in the Missouri state judging contest held recently was won by Ray Howell of Holliday, a short course graduate. The trophy of the American Saddle Horse association was won by Baxter Hall of Clarence, also a short course man.

The dairy department is particular about using the best methods, just as it is particular about the care of its prize dairy herds.

In the veterinary laboratory the students treat injured and diseased animals sent for treatment by farmers near Columbia. The man who has completed this course is fully able to handle all ordinary stock diseases.

It is expected that 100 more students will enter the second term of the short course. At that time, January 4, the special courses in dairying and poultry raising will also begin.

Jeremiah E. Stone.

Born in Owensburg, Ind., August 31, 1850, and died at the home of his brother, W. A. Stone, near Pickering, Mo., November 21, 1914, being 64 years 2 months and 20 days of age.

He moved with his parents from Indiana to Worth county, Missouri, in 1864, where he grew to young manhood.

He was married to Miss Emma Barker, in 1876, and to this union four sons were born. They moved to Nebraska in 1882, where Mrs. Stone died in 1886. In 1892 he, with the children, moved to Nodaway county, where he has since resided, with the exception of two years spent in Oklahoma. He leaves to mourn their loss three sons, Melvin A. Stone, Casper, Wyo.; Homer Stone of Skitook, Okla.; Millard Stone of Ft. Banks, Mass., and two granddaughters, also his aged father, John L. Stone, one brother, W. A. Stone, and a sister, Mrs. Sarah H. Warren of Oklahoma, beside other relatives and friends. The funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. W. H. Rust of Burlington Junction, Mo., pastor of the Christian church at Gaynor City, in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends, and the body was laid to rest at Orrsburg.

"Just Breathe It" and Be Cured.

Do not try to cure catarrh, head colds, or snuffles by taking drugs. These common but dangerous ailments that often cause the loss of hearing cannot be cured that way. The common sense method is to breathe Hymel, which gets the medication right where it is needed to heal the raw and inflamed lining of the air passages.

Hymel is a mixture of antiseptic oils—you breathe it—no bother; no disagreeable medicine; simply use the inhaler a few times daily, and this health-giving medication will quickly soothe and heal the irritated tissues, stop distressing, choking and unclean discharges—you breathe freely—dull headaches cease, and every catarrhal symptom soon vanishes.

There is nothing more simple and safe to use, or that gives such rapid and lasting benefit as Hymel—and the Orear-Henry Drug company sells it on the "no-cure-no-pay" plan.

Napoleon's Penwiper.

According to the biographers of Napoleon, his breeches were always of white cashmere. It often happened that two hours after leaving his chamber the breeches were spotted with ink by reason of the Corsican's habit of wiping his pen on them and of shaking ink all around him. It was a favorite trick of his to strike his pen against the edge of a table, and of course the breeches suffered. Further more, it appears that, however the great man dressed in the morning that was his dress for the whole day, since he would not change his toilet until nightfall. The inside of his boots was lined with white fasten.

Father's Good Point.

Little Elizabeth had been offended in some way. She went off into a corner and turned her back on the family. "I'm mad," she exclaimed sulkily. "I wish I didn't have any father or mother."

"That's wrong, dear," said her mother. "We are the best friends you have."

"Well," said Elizabeth doubtfully, "I don't mind having father. He doesn't hang around here much, but I'm getting awful tired of the rest of you."—New York Times.

Same Reason.

"Why do Indians wear feathers?" demanded Mrs. Wombat as she viewed a highly decorated brave.

"I dunno," responded Mr. Wombat. "Why do you wear 'em?"—Kansas City Journal.

The reason why we are willing to take our goods back if not satisfactory is that every thing we sell is worth its purchasing price and the profit so small that we cannot afford to let you keep them if not satisfactory. ## Quick on the Trigger With a Snap-Shot Eye

THE crack trapshooter has to be a man with steady nerves and muscles absolutely under control—always ready, at the sudden jerk of a string to swing his gun into place and bring down his clay pigeon. This means trained, not to the minute, but to the split-second. He takes no chances with his nerves.

We present the names of some of these crack shots who smoke Tuxedo. They like to smoke; but they take no chances on a tobacco that might "throw them off."

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

is purposely made to give you all the benefits of the highest grade smoke. It is made from the very finest tobacco Kentucky grows—ripe, mellow, sweet and mild old Burley, aged right up to perfection-day. Then treated by the original "Tuxedo Process," which takes out the sting, makes Tuxedo smoke cool and slow, and guarantees that it cannot bite your tongue.

Tuxedo has had many imitators; none has ever equalled it in sheer quality and smoking-value.
